Grunfeld, Desiderio, Lebowitz, Silverman & Klestadt LLP, one of the nation's leading law firms specializing in Customs law, is offering a course in preparation for the OCTOBER 2009 Custom House Broker License Exam. The firm has held highly successful Broker's License exam courses in Boston, Los Angeles, and New York. This course also provides an excellent overview of customs law and compliance for importers not intending to take the broker's exam.

This event is approved by The National Customs Brokers & Forwarders Association of America (NCBFAA) for 20 Certified Customs Specialist (CCS) continuing education points.

Information on the CCS program is available at <http://www.ncbfaa.org/education/content.cfm?itemnumber=918&navItemNumber=5321>.

The exam tests knowledge of U.S. Customs regulations, classification, valuation, broker regulation, and entry preparation. It is advisable that students have some experience in import operations or customs brokerage. U.S. Government regulations require that applicants for a broker license be at least twenty-one (21) years of age and U.S. citizens.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact: David M. Murphy (dmurphy@gdlsk.com) or call at 212-557-4000.

Web-Based Classes being Formed: If you are interested in a web-based review course, please send an email to dmurphy@gdlsk.com.

All participants must have the current Harmonized Tariff Schedules of the United States and the Customs Regulation (19 Code of Federal Regulations Parts 1-End). A loose-leaf edition of the regulations is also available. Please make sure you have received the latest updates with your purchase. These Government publications are available from Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO), Washington, D.C. 20402 (1-866-512-1800 or 1-202-512-1800) or online at <http://bookstore.gpo.gov/>. Delivery can take from 3 to 8 weeks. You can charge your purchase on American Express, Visa or MasterCard. These publications can also be purchased from private vendors such as Boskage (<http://www.boskage.com/importer/htsus.php> , <http://www.boskage.com/importer/cregs.php>). As part of the fee for the course, each participant will receive a course book including materials to assist in the preparation of the exam (Customs directives, pipelines, decisions, etc.) and prior Customs broker examinations. The exams will be for you to take at home and review to discuss in class. They assist you in getting familiar with the format and manner of the exam.
